Things in Philadelphia.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 10, P. M. For the last twelve months there have been frequent outbreaks among the weavers inhabiting the several districts comprising the County of Philadelphia, and upon several occasions serious outrages were committed. The Southwestern part of the city and Moyamersing were, made the scene of another tumnit yesterday afternoon, by large bodies of these disaffected men, who, for a time, threatened the perpetration of a series of outrages frightini to contemplate. A number of their profession, however, were grossly attacked and abused; and but for the prompt interference of our worthy Mayor, it is difficult to imagine where matters would have terminated. This morning all is quiet. A stormy day this at Harrisburg! All ears are anxiously awaiting to hear the result of the Senatorial election. Many doubt the success of Buchanan, and his defeat will be received with delight by the Porter men of this city. The Western mail, at the time of closing, 41 o'clock, had not arrived-consequently we are without any thing later from Harrisburg than that contained in our papers of yesterday The number of Loco-Feco Officers employed on the Public Works of Pennsy!vania is said to be Eighty-Four, whose united Salaries last year amounted to the immense sum of $91.966!

A black burglar, named William Anderson, was arrested this morning at an early hour in the store of Messrs. Ben sail & Allen, on the wharf, near Chesnut-street, and committed by the Mayor.

In money and business matters I have nothing of especial interest to communicate. There appears to be a complete stagnation is almost every branch of our commercial, manplacturing and mechanical affairs; and it is truly frightful to witness the vast amount of buman suffering that almost daily presents itself to the eye. The number of mechanics and laborers out of employ in Philadelphia was neve greater. Really these are evil and deplorable times.

"Relief" Notes, 11 a 13 discount. Of these worthless notes, is stated there are $2,136,650 in circulation throughout the State; and of this large sum, the Moyamenring and Pean Township Banks-two broken institutions of this City-issued $162,500! Brie and Towarda, two more exploded concerns, have yet in circulation $345,000! And yet the advocates of these infamous "Relief" issues, are the bitter and uncomprising opponents of a sound National In-

Texas papers have been received at New O leans from Galveston to the 26th ult. Representatives from all the Indian tribes had assembled at Wado village to treat with the Government. After numerous attempts to break the quorum in Congress, the malcontents have retired from Washingten to Austin, and a quotum being formed without them, the business of the nation is proceeding regularly. On the 9th inst. Mr. Scury introduced a bill to repeal the Tariff and dealare the ports of Toxas free, which has been read twice. It will not pass. The army, numbering 800 men, under General Somerville, had left the Rio Frio for the Rio Grande. The troops are said to be finely mounted, well provided and in excellent spirits. Gen. Somerville expected to teach Laredo in five days. Our next news, says the Civilian, will probably be of "battles fought and won."

The Mexican settlement of New Bahia, or Carlos Rancho, was destroyed a few weeks ago by a party of volunteers from Victoria, under Captain J. Owen.

The new steamboat Lafitte, was lost between Velasco and Galveston, with a cargo of 319 bales of cotton, 59 hides and 2 bales of deer skins. The cotton was mostly insured.

Every mother in the land knows wild cherry passesses rare medical properties an administers it to her children for almost every disease. She gives it for worms, the gives it also for coughs, cold, &c. &c. And the only reason that success and recovery do not always follow, is that the virues of the wild cherry are not sufficiently concern son that success and recovery do not always follow, is that the virtues of the wild cherry are not sufficiently concentrated by steeping it. The Baisam is a chemical extract, combining all the heating qualities of the wild cherry in a small compass. No medicine equals it.
